Essential Job Functions - Accountabilities

Spiritual Leadership

- Acknowledge Christ as Savior and seek to live life as His disciple.
- Have a conviction that God has called them to Christian school teaching.
- Believe and actively support the school’s statement of faith.
- Be a Christian role model in attitude, speech, and actions toward others.
- Actively participate in a local Bible-believing church.
- Motivate students to accept God’s gift of salvation and be a Christian witness and role model to help them grow in their faith.
- Follow Matthew 18 principles when dealing with conflict with students, parents, staff, and administration.

Responsibilities

- Teach classes as assigned, following the prescribed scope and sequence as the administration schedules.
- Plan broadly through the use of semester and quarterly plans and objectives using the FACTS Student Information System.
- Regularly assess students' learning and provide progress reports as required.
- Provide an effective classroom management and behavior system.
- Maintain regular and accurate records to meet the demands for a comprehensive knowledge of each student's progress.
- Integrate biblical principles and a Christian worldview throughout the curriculum and activities.
- Respond promptly to parent complaints and parent requests for help with information.
- Participate in formal and informal parent-teacher conferences.
- Know the procedures for dealing with emergencies in the classroom and school.
- Participate in continuous professional development through professional reading, college coursework, in-services, workshops, and training.
- Participate in beginning-of-year staff orientation, devotions, and parent/teacher fellowship meetings.
- Maintain a clean, attractive, and well-ordered classroom.
- Participate in the end-of-the-year school closing process, such as inventory of textbooks, furniture, and equipment.
- Perform other duties as assigned by the Administration.

Statement of Faith:

- We believe the Bible is God-inspired.
- We believe God is Triune: Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
- We believe that man was created in the image of God but that by voluntary disobedience, he fell from perfection.
- We believe that, while we were sinners, Christ died for us, signing the pardon of all who believe in him.
- We believe that we have no righteousness and must come to God pleading the righteousness of Christ.
- We believe that we are justified before God upon sincere repentance and a whole-hearted acceptance of Christ.
- We believe that the change, which takes place in the heart and life at conversion, is very real.
- We believe that it is the will of God that we are sanctified daily, constantly growing in the faith.
- We believe baptism by immersion is an outward sign of an inward work.
- We believe in commemorating the Lord's Supper through the symbolic use of the bread and juice of the vine.
- We believe that the baptism of the Holy Spirit is to endue the believer with power; and that His incoming is after the same manner as in the time of Christ and his disciples..
- We believe that it is the will of God that we walk in the Spirit daily.

- We believe that the Holy Spirit has gifts to bestow upon the Christian; and that we should show spiritual fruit as evidence of a Spirit-filled life.
- We believe that the experience and daily walk of the believer should never lead him into extremes of fanaticism.
- We believe that divine healing is the power of Christ to heal the sick in answer to the prayer of faith.
- We believe that the second coming of Christ is personal and imminent.
- We believe it is our sacred duty to identify ourselves with the visible church of Christ.
- We believe that all rulers should be upheld at all times except in things opposed to the will of God.
- We believe that all shall stand some day before the judgment seat of God and there receive eternal life or death.
- We believe that heaven is the glorious eternal home of born-again believers.
- We believe that hell is the place of eternal torment for all who reject Christ as the Savior.
- We believe that soul-winning is the most important responsibility of the Church.
- We believe that the method ordained of God for the support and spreading of His cause is by giving tithes and free-will offerings.

Core Values

- Love God
- Love People
- Pursue Excellence
- Choose Joy
- Honor Others
